do my housework. I have taken Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and it has done me a lot of good. I will recommend your medicine to my friends and give you permission to publish my testimonial." - Mrs. LAWRENCE MAR-TIN, 12 King St., Westbrook, Maine.

Manston, Wis. - "At the Change of Life I suffered with pains in my back Four room cottage on lot 40x120 and loins until I could not stand. I also had night-sweats so that the sheets would be wet. I tried other medicine but got no relief. After taking one bot-tle of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound I began to improve and I continued its use for six months. The pains left me, the night-sweats and hot flashes grew less, and in one year I was a different woman. I know I have to thank you for my continued good health ever since." - Mrs. M. J. BROWNELL, Manston, Wis.

The success of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, made from roots and herbs, is unparalleled in such cases.

bania Are Boiling with Religious and Racial Strife.

LONDON, June 2 .- The troubles of Mexico and Ulster have wholly the formal ending of the Balkan war has brought no rest to that long suff-ering region. Thrace, Macedonia and Albania are boiling with racial and re-ligious strife. Stories of fighting, of persecution and of massacres come to the London papers from many correspondents, and are printed in small type with little comment. Europe has come to accept these conditions as a matter of course.

Forcible "Conversions."

The changes of boundaries and of sovereignty which resulted from the peace treaties, and the launching of Albania as an autonomous state, are responsible for the new era of strug-gle and butchery. Every power con-cerned in the new allotments is trying to impress not only its laws but its own state religion upon those who have become its subjects, if the current historians are to be believed.

Forcible "conversions" by whole sale seem the order of the day. tween the Christian and Muss dispensations, between Greeks, Turks, Bulgarians, Roumanians, Servians as desperate times in Thrace under the rod of the Young Turk, as the Bulgarians had in Macedonia under Abdul Hamid. The methods of terrorism are the same.

Bandits Plentiful. Irregular troops, who get their living by loot, and bands of so-called brigands, all supposed to be acting under inspirations from Constantino-ple, are over running the country. Burning villages light the sky, as during the days of war; cattle and sheep are driven away; pillage and ravising go on. Life s made so intolerable that Greek inhabitants are glad to escape to the coast with what bundles they can carry on their backs. Athens reports that 25,000 refugees have arrived at Salonika by ships, and that 15,000 more are waiting on the coast to get away. The head of the Greek church a Constantinople persuaded the British ambassador to remonstrate with the Sublime Porte, and orders were telegraphed to the local governors to repatriate all refugees. "Truth" says that these orders were meant only for the ambassador's benefit, and that the governors were given the word says cretely to disregard them. That was a familiar strategem of the old Turkish diplomacy, when pressure from the powers became too acute to be ignored.

The Greek government, on its part, does not lack enterprise at oppression if witness from non-Greek sources be credited. Restrictive laws against the Jews in Salonika have been made so strong that 80,000 are leaving that once prosperous part. The battalions

TRYING TO SAVE BIG 'FRISCO PROPERTY

Jesse Lilienthal is president of the United Railroads of San Francisco and is trying to save that big property from ruin. Last year Patrick Calhoun, then president of the com-pany, invested over a million dollars of its money in a land project which afterward collapsed. This invest-ment almost put the company into of Greeks from Thrace seeking asylum, and of departing Jews, number between two and three thousand per-sons daily, so that all shipping is crowded and the normal life and business are as much disturbed as the were during the days of the war. An important factor of the upheaval is that both the Greeks and Thrace and the Jews of Salonika were the most prosperous peoples in those communities and their expulsion means disaster and ruin to both.

Civil War in Albania. Meanwhile the new ruler of Albania, Prince William of Wied, who bears the title Mpret, is having a troublesome honeymoon with his do-main. Civil war, which customarily is the chief industry of that more than half barbarous principality is proceeding as usual. The Greeks claim 400,000 adherents out of the 550,000 inhabitants of the southern portion of the new Albania These portion of the new Albania. These people of Epirus known as Epirotes efuse allegiance to the Mpret. Fierce fighting has been going on about Kor-Thrace, Macedonia and Alitza, and the rebellion is said to be led by officers from the Greek Army. The Epirotes have the advantage of an organized army possessed of some artillery. Apart from a small force of gendarmes, some 1,500 or 2,000, the dispensations, between Greeks, Turks, Bulgarians, Roumanians, Servians and Albanians, there is little choice of standards of civilization. Much of the information comes from Athens which presents events only from the standpoint of Greek interests; much is disseminated by the newspapers of Vienna, which is a fountain of canards.

The Turkish government is determined to drive the whole Greek population from Thrace, according to accounts from Greek sources. It has organized a campaign of oppression which is making life impossible for people of Greek affiliations in the country about Kirk Kilisse, Lulu Burgas and all the land which Bulgaria conquered in the first war and lost through the final treaty. By Greeks is meant the adherents of the concern.
